- (2) The cost of registration of the notarial tie or servitude referred to in paragraph (1)(b) must be borne by the owner.

COMBINED PARKING REQUIREMENTS

44. If two or more uses combine to share a common parking area, the Municipality may approve parking requirements that provide less than the quantum of the parking required for individual uses provided that—
- (1) the Municipality is satisfied that the utilisation of the same parking area by the different use types or activities in the zones will not result in a concurrent use of the parking area; and
 - (2) bays intended for combined uses may not subsequently be reallocated to other uses without the approval of the Municipality.

SITE ACCESS AND EXITS

45. (1) The Municipality may require compliance with standard municipal or provincial access spacing guidelines.

 - (c) the minimum and maximum widths of motor vehicle carriageway crossings must be in accordance with the table, titled “Width of motor vehicle carriageway crossings” as measured on the street boundary, where a single carriageway crossing means the crossing may only be used as either an entrance or an exit only, not both, and a combined carriageway crossing means that the crossing can be used for both an entrance and an exit;
 - (d) the minimum width of a panhandle access may not be less than 4 metres wide unless otherwise determined by the Municipality.

WIDTH OF MOTOR VEHICLE CARRIAGEWAY CROSSINGS

Type of carriageway crossing	Minimum width	Maximum width

The subdivisional area overlay (SAO) zoning designates land for future subdivision with development rights by providing development directives through specific conditions as approved in terms of this By-law. The SAO zoning confirms the principle of development and acceptance of future subdivision of land; but not the detailed layout, which will be determined when an actual application for subdivision is approved.

1.2. Use of the property

Land zoned as a subdivisional area may be subdivided as contemplated in the Municipal Planning By-Law.

1.3. Development parameters

When the Municipality approves a subdivisional area overlay zone, it must impose conditions making provision for at least—

- (b) main land uses and the extent of such uses; and
- (c) a detailed phasing plan or a framework including—
 - (i) main transport routes;
 - (ii) main land uses;

2.1. General purpose of special planning area overlay zone

The general purpose of a package of plans is to provide for a mechanism to plan and manage the development of large or strategic urban development areas which also provides for a greater degree of flexibility. The package of plans mechanism is a phased process of negotiation, planning and approvals, where appropriate levels of planning detail are approved together with conditions for those approvals. A special planning area overlay zone is generally created in respect of an application which involves a mixed-use development proposal or where the development does not generally comply with the development parameters of the applicable land uses of this zoning scheme.

2.2. Use of the property

- 2.2.1 Primary uses are as stipulated in the conditions of approval imposed in terms of the Municipal Planning By-Law.
- 2.2.2 Consent uses are as stipulated in the conditions of approval imposed in terms of the Municipal Planning By-Law.

2.3. Development parameters

- 2.3.1 The Municipality must require a package of plans as set out in section 2.3.4 of Schedule 3 to be submitted for areas zoned as special planning area overlay zones.

- 2.3.2 The applicant must, during pre-application discussions with the Municipality, ascertain whether a package of plans procedure must be followed.
- 2.3.3 The development parameters of the lowest order package of plans as contemplated in section 2.3.2 of Schedule 3 and as approved by the Municipality are the development parameters of the special planning overlay zone applicable to the property concerned.
- 2.3.4 The package of plans consists of the following components that are listed in a hierarchy from higher-order to lower-order plans, and the lower-order plans must comply with the higher-order plan:
- (a) Contextual framework
 - (i) The contextual framework lays down broad land use policy for the development and the surrounding area.
 - (ii) It may include principles or heads of agreement summarising the general obligations of the Municipality and the developer in relation to the development.
 - (iii) The contextual framework may be prepared by the Municipality, or by a land owner or development agency under supervision of the Municipality and may not be in conflict with a spatial development framework or structure plan approved by the Municipality.
 - (b) Development framework
 - (i) The development framework must identify overall policy, broad goals, and principles for development within the development.
 - (ii) The development framework must identify the range of uses, general spatial distribution of uses, major transport and pedestrian linkages, infrastructure and any limits to development within the development, including but not limited to density and floor space.
 - (c) Precinct plans
 - (i) Precinct plans apply to specific areas within the development framework that have common features, functional relationships or phasing requirements.
 - (ii) There may be several precinct plans that make up a development area.
 - (iii) A precinct plan must describe in more detail the development objectives and intentions for a specific area in the development, as well as principles for urban form, land use, pedestrian links, traffic movement, floor space and environmental management.
 - (d) Subdivision plans
 - (i) Subdivision plans, if required, must be processed in terms of planning law to establish new cadastral boundaries and to facilitate the transfer of land units.
 - (ii) Subdivision plans may be approved at any stage after the development framework has been approved, and the provisions of section 15(2) apply to such plans.
 - (e) Site development plans
 - (i) Site development plans depict more detailed design and development provisions for one or more land units within a development.
 - (ii) These provisions may include (but are not limited to) details relating to land use, floor space, building lines, height, parking requirements, municipal services and landscaping, as well as details relating to the position and appearance of buildings, open space, pedestrian links and traffic movement.

(f) Building plans

- (i) Building plans contain detailed specifications as required by the National Building Regulations.
- (ii) Building work may only commence once building plans have been approved by the Municipality.

2.3.5 The Municipality may require all or only some of the components of the package of plans to be applied in respect of a particular development.

2.3.6 The Municipality may require that the area covered by a contextual framework must extend beyond the land under consideration if, in its opinion, the proposed development will have a wider impact, and the Municipality may determine the extent of that area.

2.3.7 In approving a package of plans, the Municipality must determine the total floor space or density permitted within the development which must be imposed as a condition of approval.

2.3.8 The allocation of floor space must consider the carrying capacity of internal and external infrastructure including roads and utility services, and any urban design principles approved by the Municipality as part of a rezoning or contextual framework.

2.3.9 The approved floor space may remain as “floating floor space” assigned to the overall development for later allocation or may be assigned to particular precincts when a precinct plan is approved; and in either case must be allocated to individual subdivisions or site development plans.

2.3.10 When a special planning area overlay zone and a package of plans is required in terms of this zoning scheme, the relevant components must be submitted to the Municipality for its approval before any development on a land unit can commence, provided that—

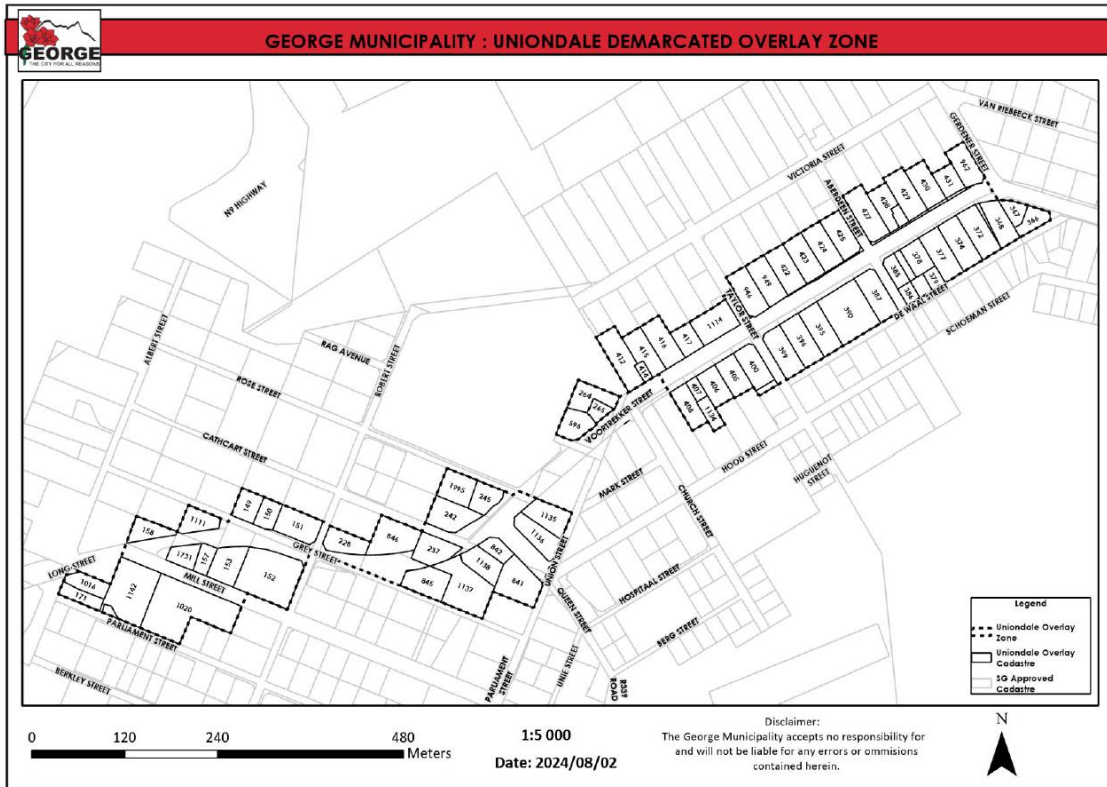

- (a) the development may not be refused if it is consistent with the development parameters of a base zone, overlay zone, or condition of approval; and

SCHEDULE 5

A. 2017 ZONING SCHEME ADOPTED

The George Integrated Zoning Scheme By-Law, 2017 was adopted by the George Municipality in terms of Section 12 of the Municipal Systems Act, Act 32 of 2000, at a Council meeting held on 24 August 2017. Final promulgation of the George Integrated Zoning Scheme By-Law, 2017 was published in the Provincial Gazette of 01 September 2017.

Refer to above document for process followed before 2017 by-law was adopted.

B. 2022 GAP ANALYSIS AND REVIEW

Scope of Review

- i. Municipality is required in terms of Section 27(1) of the Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, 2013 (SPLUMA) to review its integrated zoning scheme every 5 years. The process of reviewing the present zoning scheme had to commence by 31 August 2022.
- ii. Municipality must ensure its zoning scheme aligns with the SPLUMA/LUPA principles of spatial justice, spatial sustainability, efficiency, spatial resilience, and good administration.
- iii. The zoning scheme must comply with Section 24(2) of the SPLUMA which states that an integrated land use (zoning) scheme must, among others:
 - o Make provision for appropriate rural and urban zoning categories and land uses for each zone;
 - o Consider environmental management instruments adopted by relevant environmental management authorities;
 - o Include provisions to permit the incremental management and upgrading of rural areas, informal settlements, and slums;
 - o Include provisions to promote the inclusion of affordable housing in residential land development;
 - o Provide incentives to promote the effective implementation of the municipality's spatial development frameworks and other development policies;
 - o Include provisions that promote the effective implementation of national and provincial government policies;
 - o Give effect to the Municipal Spatial Development Framework and the Integrated Spatial Development Plan (as adopted in May 2023);
 - o Municipality to determine land use categories, land uses and development parameters that promote economic growth (including tourism), social inclusion, and efficient land use while minimising impacts on public health, the environment, and natural resources.
- iv. The zoning scheme to comply with Section 24(3) of SPLUMA which states that zoning schemes must include provisions relating to:
 - o Land uses that can be permitted with Council's permission or consent – determine land uses that need to be added or removed;
 - o Establishing special zones (overlay zones) to address development priorities in the municipal area;
 - o Providing for minor deviations from the conditions (land use development parameters) of the zoning scheme;

- v. Amendments to the zoning scheme must be (a) in the public interest; (b) advance, or in the interest of, a disadvantaged community; and (c) to further the vision and development goals of the municipality (as contained in the IDP).
- vi. Zoning Scheme must provide mechanisms to resolve conflicts between the zoning schemes that were repealed when the GIZS Bylaw was implemented in 2017, including errors in the zoning map – e.g., allocating SRZI and not SRZIII to state subsidised housing.

Gap analysis process

- i. The Directorate: Human Settlement, Planning and Development and Property Management established a task team who, over a period of 2 months, undertook a gap analysis whereby all the provisions of the zoning scheme, each zoning category, each land use and all the land use parameters (building lines, heights of buildings, parking requirements) were assessed to determine its alignment with the MSDF of 2019 and the MSDF review gap analysis of May 2022 (i.e. the MSDF of 2023).
- ii. The GIZS gap analysis also investigated possible short-comings and the need for statutory alignment. This includes proposals to recover development charges incurred by enhanced land use rights and latent rights that owners have not yet implemented on their properties.
- iii. The Gap Analysis report along with Consolidated Work Group Notes and Consolidated GIZS Bylaw Gap Analysis Tables were submitted to and adopted by Council on 30 June 2022, who authorised the commencement of the By-law amendment process.

C. 2023 AMENDMENT OF THE ZONING SCHEME

Amendment commencement

- i. The drafting of the amended GISZ Bylaw was undertaken between July 2022 and December 2022.
- ii. The draft by-law document was workshopped over several sessions with senior municipal officials in the respective Directorates and officials of the Western Cape Government.
- iii. The Directorate identified this need over the course of the IDP public engagements, conducted during October and November 2022 for the need to include 3 overlay zones for parts of Thembalethu, Haarlem and Uniondale.

- vi. A workshop was held with the Council on 12 April 2023 to discuss the proposed amendments.
- vii. A report with the draft amended GIZS By-law was submitted to Council with the draft zoning scheme by-law and zoning amendment table on 26 April 2023.
